

Module-1

Q.1 Define Customer Relationship Management (CRM). Explain its meaning, definitions, importance, and growth. Discuss how CRM is used in modern organizations with suitable examples.

Q.2 Explain the concept of E-CRM (Electronic Customer Relationship Management). Discuss the role of CRM and ECRM in digital business environments. Also explain the nature and characteristics of E-CRM.

Q.3 Describe the CRM Framework and CRM Cycle in detail. Explain the stages involved in the CRM process and the prerequisites required for successful CRM implementation in an organization.

Q.4 Discuss the different types of CRM. Explain how operational, analytical, and collaborative CRM contribute to effective customer relationship management.

Q.5 Explain the concept of customer touch points in CRM. How can organizations manage customer touch points effectively? Discuss the success factors in Online Supply Chain Management and e-Customer Relationship Management.

Module-2

Q.1 Explain the role of technology in Customer Relationship Management (CRM). Discuss various technological support applications used in CRM and their impact on organizational performance.

Q.2 What is Personal Touch Automation in CRM? Explain how automation tools help organizations maintain personalized customer relationships while improving operational efficiency. Illustrate with examples.

Q.3 Discuss the technical requirements for implementing a CRM system. Explain the importance of customer databases and information systems in successful CRM implementation.

Q.4 Explain the process of selecting the right CRM tools. What factors should organizations consider while identifying the right CRM program? Discuss with suitable examples.

Q.5 Compare and contrast the application of CRM in B2C and B2B markets. Highlight the key differences in strategies, tools, and relationship management approaches.

Module-3

Q.1 Define E-CRM and explain its importance in the digital business environment. Discuss how E-CRM contributes to customer satisfaction, retention, and competitive advantage.

Q.2 Explain how organizations can create trust and loyalty in online environments through E-CRM strategies. Discuss the key factors that influence customer trust in digital platforms.

Q.3 Describe the architecture and key components of an E-CRM system. Explain how these components interact to enhance customer relationship management in online businesses.

Q.4 Discuss the major issues and challenges in establishing and implementing E-CRM strategies. Suggest suitable solutions to overcome these challenges.

Q.5 Explain the road map for successful implementation of E-CRM strategies. Discuss the recent trends in E-CRM and their impact on modern business organizations.